

The Celebrated

FLEX-OR!

—AND—

FLEX-TILE

Stiff Hats in new shapes and colors just opened at

KLEINMAIER BROS.

Also Light and Dark Colors in

4-IN-HAND!

Ties at

At 25 and 40 Cents.

THE MARION DAILY STAR

Published Every Evening Except Sunday

W. G. HARDING.

TERMS:

By Mail, $4 per Year in Advance

Delivered by Carrier, 10 Cts. per Week

TUESDAY, APRIL 2

At 10 o'clock, is the day and hour designated by the President for general prayer and thanksgiving.

The word boycott is falling into disuse. The boycott is found to be loaded at both ends, and is becoming unpopular as a means of rectifying wrongs.

The April fool joke about beer being two cents a glass in Cincinnati has been accepted throughout the country as fact. There are so many fellows who would like so much the story to be true that they don't want to think of it as a joke.

With the opening of spring and favorable weather, impatience in the water works delay increases. The suspension of last summer and the final failure to build has a good deal to do with the lack of faith, and there must be active work to restore confidence in Marion's proposed waterworks.

The Cleveland Press has found it necessary to enlarge its pages, but will continue as a one-cent paper. The Press has grown in its sprightliness and usefulness. Acknowledging no allegiance to party, sect or thing, it is independent and sane, and pitches into every wrong doing with an alacrity that is invigorating.

The sensational divorce suit at Columbus, which has been watched with so much interest, has terminated with a decree of divorce for the plaintiff, the custody of the children, and modest alimony. Extreme cruelty was the only charge substantially proved, and it was on this ground that the divorce was granted. The charges of adultery and failure to provide were disproved.

Atmospherically speaking, it is a very cold day when the weather bureau people don't make some ridiculous blunder in their predictions. A "fair weather" prediction for a day of rain, snow, sleet, cold, thunder and lightning has a tendency to weaken faith in the bureau. To secure a reputation for reliability the bureau should move to some foreign country where the weather is not subject to such frequent changes.

In speaking of the works of President Harrison during the past month—his regularity in chopping off official heads and the careful distribution of offices, F. D. Mussey, the indomitable correspondent of the Commercial Gazette, thus facetiously adds:

"Besides doing this work he has shaken hands with thirty thousand people, patted eight thousand babies on the head, kissed six thousand of them, thanked ten thousand men who voted for his grandfather in 1840 and him in 1888, answered one hundred thousand idiotic questions, heartily thanked five thousand men who were the first to mention him for the Presidency, shaken hands with eight thousand surviving soldiers of the seventeenth Indiana Regiment, has warmly thanked thirty members of the Vermont delegation, eight at Chicago, which voted for him solidly from beginning to end; has also thanked eighty members of the California delegation to Chicago, each one having been the man who 'threw' that delegation to him, and made sure his nomination has taken a walk every day, has kept Elijah Halford straight, and done many other difficult and trying things."

A GLANCE at the report of the Mormon conference, at Salt Lake City, Sunday, is sufficient to revive hatred against the pestiferous sect. The reported selfishness of members of the conference is noticeable, and almost sufficient to weaken faith in all professions of religion. One speaker at the conference was particularly emphatic in the importance of paying tithing, a view which requirement in the Mormon religion it is to be hoped that Mormonism may soon be buried so deep that the clergy of Gabriel's blarney never reach it again.

It is natural that Senator Payne should want to be "vindicated," but his chances are about as promising as those of the fellow who "wanted the earth." The majority of Standard will hardly be sufficient to ruin the war when the "vindication" begins.

CAPTURE OF A DEVIL FISH.

The Parasite Who Traveled with the Monster—A Troublesome Fellow.

We are indebted to the Rev. W. C. Bourcier, R. N., chaplain to H. M. S. Conus, in the West Indies, for the sketch of this incident, accompanied by the following account of it.

"As her majesty's ship lay at anchor in English harbor, Antigua, the little barrel like buoy that marks the place of the anchor, to which it is fastened by a four inch rope, was observed to plunge about and splash, diving under the water and disappearing. Reports of this unusual behavior of our buoy were conveyed to the officers, who treated them with the cautious suspicion that such an unlikely story seemed to deserve. By 1 o'clock in the afternoon, when the buoy had danced for an hour and a half and seemed to require some looking after, it was dispatched to its assistance. The cause of the disturbance was then manifest. A huge devil fish had got foul of the buoy rope, and there he was, struggling away, about six feet below the surface of the water, with two great turns of the rope around one of his mouth fins, and I may call them for want of a better name.

"He was secured with a sharp hook by a gallant midshipman and was then hauled aboard, where in which he was entangled was cut, and he was slowly towed alongside and was hoisted on board.

"When he was laid on the deck we had an ample opportunity of admiring his vast proportions. He was not a thing of beauty, but an awe inspiring monster of the deep. There lay the great fish, like a giant black bat, with his huge wings extended on the deck, measuring across, from tip to tip, 16 feet 4 inches. The other dimensions were: Breadth of mouth (horizontally), 3 feet 10 inches; head to end of tail, 12 feet 8 inches; length of tail alone, 5 feet. But it was a puzzle at first to find out where his mouth was placed.

"I have it, sir," cried a blue jacket in great glee; and, what is more, he has a fish in it—his dinner is there! As he spoke he opened a pair of great black lips, rather to one side of the fish, I thought, and below these lips was a white cavity, large enough to contain one's head. And there was a fish, sure enough, inside it, but this little fish was alive; he bounced out, a fish the size of a small herring, and skipped furiously about the deck between our feet. There were more wonders presently, when another blue jacket found another mouth, with another fish in it, alive and well. With another fish, too, came out and skipped on deck between our legs. Then it dawned upon us that these small fishes could never have been eaten by the big devil fish; and further examination showed that each of them had a flat plate on the back of its head; it looked as if they had held on to something by this sucker, and it proved that so they did. We put them in a bucket of water, and they hung on to the sides of it with the back of their heads so vigorously that the hardest pull could not shift their position, much less disengage them; though when the bucket was emptied, they came off inside at a touch. The small fishes had clung to the devil fish as his parasites, not feeding on him, for they left no mark behind, but using him for their traveling habitation. The cavities in which they lodged were his nostrils. Meanwhile, we discovered the real mouth of the devil fish, three feet across, lying between these cavities. This enormous mouth is quite toothless; the devil fish sucks down his food as one would an oyster. What is his food I cannot tell, for after I had finished sketching him, and before I had well begun dissecting him, orders were given to hoist him overboard, as he was making the deck filthy with the streams of blood that continued to flow from his dead body.

"Stories have been told of the devil fish taking a luckless swimmer between his great lips, folding him in a deadly embrace and sinking with him to the depths below; and this may be true enough, but the Manta Diabolica, or Manta Birosia, as he is scientifically called, is said to feed only on sea weed. At the same time he is troublesome and even dangerous, fond of meddling with the mooring of fishermen's boats, as he did with our moorings, and setting them awry, and when pursued a favorite position when they were more plentiful, and, if not quickly dispatched, capsizing them. I have often seen these fish leap out of the water, an amazing sight—on the coast of Venezuela, where they are common as leopards to the size of twenty foot broad. —Illustrated London News.

Dainty Cups and Saucers.

A Boston girl has received fifty-two cups and saucers sent by friends with congratulations on her engagement, according to the most recent "vogue" in society. No two are alike. One of these cups is the delicate rose tinted Irish Belleek ware, frail enough to crush in a lady's hand, and whose economy lining looks as flimsy as nature's lining of an egg shell, while the varying thickness of the lines gives it a beautiful translucent effect. —New York Telegram.

STRAY BITS.

It cost $2 to protest a note in Los Angeles against $150 in the east.

Cuban islands have murdered a man when they had for $5,000 ransom.

The richest man in Berlin resides in an annual income of 2,700,000 marks ($1,191,000).

There are 2,249 watches manufactured in the United States daily, at a cost of from $5 to $20 each.

The British record of football for 1893 shows the appalling number of eight deaths and five serious injuries.

A new fruit has been discovered in southern California. It looks like the fruit of the pear tree, but the pulp is soft and pulpy, tasting like cherries.

A case containing representations of every president of the United States in miniature has just been completed and will be sent to the Paris exhibition.

A New York policeman has been ordered to appear before the commissioners on a charge of dancing a can-can on the open streets while on duty.

A small beachfront property in Worcester-shire, England, is announced for sale by auction, held "for the residue of term of 2,000 years expired in the year 1999."

Coney Island is fast being washed away by the sea. Those who have enjoyed the beach there will regret to learn that the old resort is in danger of being totally destroyed.

A silver bell has been hung in a tower in the village of Berck, where the railroad accident to the coast took place on that day. It will be tolled every day at the hour of the accident.

There are marriages still at famous Grotto Green. One Willie Lang there takes the place of the ancient blacksmith, and in the public house sits a dozen or so of runaway couples every day.

The United States government, as a reward for his faithful services, has enrolled Wash- ington, the head chief of the Shoshone Indians in Wyoming, as a government scout, with the pay of a regular soldier.

The tail female but now agitates the minds of the male frequenters of the London pits that it is proposed that the pit should be divided like a quaker meeting house, the men sitting on one side and the women on the other.

It is claimed that there are 5,000 tailors in and near Boston out of work, because, as alleged, the local clothing manufacturers send their goods to New York city to be made up by the cheap labor of the tenement house districts.

Ash Wednesday no longer interferes with the theatrical performances in London. Whereas all the theatres used to close on that day, now they are open as usual, and the public are not so much annoyed as they were formerly.

In a small garden attached to one of the most frequented saloons in El Paso lies a stone image of a woman, which some twenty years ago created an unbounded sensation, not only among the public generally, but also among scientists. It is the celebrated Cardiff giant.

A sporting man in Chicago was so certain that his dog would win a proposed fight that he mortgaged his right foot and all his jewelry, and even pawned his sweetheart to put up her cash. The other dog won, and his factory was closed out, and his girl committed suicide.

The English have begun to bet on elections in true American style. At the late Kensington election odds were offered ranging from 5 to 1 to 2 to 1 on the Conservative candidate, afterward defeated, and the betting was heavy, 4 to 1 to 5 to 1 laid on the Conservative candidate for defeat.

The compact and which gives such firm footing upon the beach of Anastasia, Fla., is scarcely half an inch in depth. Below it lies a bed of loose, broken shells. Under the microscope a pinch of this material from the beach of Anastasia is found to be a myriad of golden, yellow and mineral, and of glittering crystals and gems of every hue.

William Verity died recently in Sacramento, Cal., leaving a fortune of $11,000. Immediately thereafter appeared a Mrs. Verity, living in New York, who had not seen her husband since 1855. She had heard of his whereabouts in 1885, but quietly investigated, and found that he was still in California, and had "died for good." She does not believe marriage to be a failure.

The government of Japan desires to increase its navy by building four or five first class ships every year, in order to be prepared for any emergency. Japan already possesses a navy of thirty-five ships and 3,000 officers and men. A commission of engineers are at present in America inspecting our newest war ships with a view of building similar vessels in Japan.

The big raft that is to float from Puget sound down to San Francisco will be made of longer logs than were ever put into a raft on Atlantic waters. It will have 5,000 logs, as against the 25,000 in the big Juggernaut of last year, but none will be less than 100 feet long, and the great end of the sticks will be tapered, with the amount of lumber up to the amount of the big eastern raft.

THE LATEST IN JEWELS.

Colored diamonds combined with perfect white ones in fancy settings indulged in once more by high price purchasers.

High decorations of pleasing character are fingered gold rings with a diamond in the heart and a twisted stem of gold to pierce the hair.

Now the silversmiths are utilizing the horseshoe and clover leaf pattern as a garish clasp engraved with the inscription, "Ten o'clock and you're gone."

A pleasing queen chain pendant and an entirely new one, in form of three miniature tree stumps in bright gold, tied around with two strands of gold wire rope.

Among necklaces pendant novelties is one in the shape of a diamond deer-deer, with a pale pink pearl on the upper part and a smoky gray pearl on either side.

Extremely tasty and unique is a loquax composed of a hazel branch, the nuts being represented by bright yellow diamonds, and the leaves and stem in tiny rubies.

In the center of a trove of diamonds is a large rare, a pair shaped of unusual transparency, all themselves, and combining to make a pendant of a very high order.

One of the most artistic and rich looking brooches recently designed is a rosette on a flexible stem, on which are two green gold leaves, one set with rubies and the other with diamonds. The brooch is a tiny watch chain with diamonds.

Certainly one of the handsomest emeralds that wealth can purchase is composed of two large emeralds covered with a filigree gold mesh. Diamond forget-me-nots are set on the emeralds, and further heighten its beauty by a row of small watch rests in the top. —Jewelry Review.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

One woman is writing two new novels. The other is a woman, now in his 88th year, who is a lawyer.

It is reported that Victorian Sarah continues to be a great success to the United States.

Alphonse Graceland, the novelist, reads Latin, Greek, Sanskrit, Arabic and Persian with facility.

The Duke of Westminster is worth about $20,000,000, and his annual income is set down at $1,000,000.

Admiral Murray is trying to turn an honest penny by lecturing on "How to Become a Millionaire."

Young Mr. Phelps, of New Jersey, has just set on with his new wife and a steamer yacht for a two years' bridal tour.

Rev. Dr. Selah Merrill, of Andover, possesses one of the finest collections of Poles (Indian antiquities) in the world.

Joseph Miller has a great interest in the California Forestry commission.

Browning says that "How the Good News Was Brought From Ghent to Aix" was written on a vessel of the African coast, and has no historic basis.

Valentine Princeps, the famous English artist, best known as "Val," stands six feet three in his stockings. He is a play writer as well as a painter.

George R. Lane, just elected state superintendent of public instruction in Nebraska, is a graduate of Dartmouth college, and holds a scientific department, class of 1877.

Congressman "Samuel" Cox is over 60 years of age, although his wit and vivacity keep him young. His hair has become thin and gray, but his tongue is ready as ever.

Mr. Palmer, Mr. Belmont's successor as minister to Spain, will be able to talk Spanish to Queen Christina, as the ex-senator is a proficient student of the language of the lion.

The emperor of Austria intends to visit England this year in such strict incognito that no one but himself and his attendants will know his things about it till he is in London again.

The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough are taking up the house in Carlton square with great confidence, and when completed it will be one of the most sumptuous dwellings in London.

Allen Thorndike Rice is one of the richest writers in the United States. He is but 35, handsome and a bachelor. He has a stable of fast horses, a steam yacht, a New York mansion and a cottage at Tuxedo Park.

Moses Lyman, the inventor of the "Pigs in Clover" puzzle, lives on a farm near Westbury, N. Y. He made the puzzle in order to amuse his children, and a New York man heard of it and purchased his rights.

Sir John Pope Hennessy, who will return to England in June from the Mauritius, intends to take an early opportunity of re-entering the house of commons. Sir John is an avowed Radical, and also a strong Home Ruler.

Andrew C. Bradley, who has been appointed to the bench of the District of Columbia, is a graduate of Columbia university and a member of the Law School, the grandfather of a prominent postmaster general under Washington.

James Bismarck spends a great deal of time of late in the Napoleonic practice of playing solitaire with cards. He claims that the game quiets his nerves, which have given him a good deal of trouble since he gave up brandy and tobacco.

Mr. Beckin is recently the proprietor of a study for which he had paid 1,000 guineas. When he disposed of it, it realized 6,000, and soon afterwards, when sold in Paris, it realized 7,000 guineas.

The last letter written by Explorer Stanley before starting for Africa was addressed to Mrs. Frances Sheldon in New York. Mrs. Sheldon is also the custodian of most of the explorer's literary efforts, which he confided to her before starting upon his expedition.

Among Mr. Irving's pensioners are a family which, when he was very young and a very poor actor in Scotland, once invited him to a Christmas dinner, and took occasion at the same time to present him with a suit of clothes prepared for the occasion, and offered him much delicate kindness.

Rev. E. A. Grace, vicar of Great Baring, Essex, England, who recently published a catechism in which he denounced as a sin the casting of a dissolving glass of worship, has been compared by his bishop for the publication of the book to the vicar's assent to the most outrageous.

"Kil" Miller, the noted confidence man, made an effort to secure his release on the ground, as stated by his lawyer, that Miller was a "tourist" to strangers in the city of New York. Miller speaks four languages and was once an intimate friend of Oscar Wilde's, as Oscar found out to his cost.

Bill Armes' wealth is estimated at $25,000,000. He is stout and pulpy, with broad, broad brow, his face is in shape like the full moon, fringed by yellow English cut side whiskers. He ascribes his success to good memory, and is said to carry all the details of his enormous meat packing business in his head.

The Duke of Portland will be married to Miss Dallas York on Monday, June 11. Some of the bride's Philadelphia relatives are expected at the wedding. The duke has given his fiancée the most magnificent sash cloak and a pearl necklace, said to be the finest in England, and he is having all the Portland jewels reset for her.

The Rev. Dr. Scott, President Harrison's father-in-law, keeps steadily at work at his desk in the pension office. Shortly after the election Mrs. Harrison wrote to her father asking him to quit work and live at the White House, but the old gentleman stubbornly refused the temptation and said that he had been so long used to the routine of his office that he could not give it up.

Cardinal Haynald, the Hungarian prelate, was leaving his hotel to go to his carriage, when a child begged him for alms. He felt in all his pockets without finding a coin, and, seeing a richly dressed woman passing, he turned to her and begged for his purse, and taking from it a liberal sum, bestowed it upon the child. Then he thanked the woman gravely, and entering his carriage, was driven away.

The pope is a very fine chess player, and one priest in Rome has the especial honor of being his adversary over the board. This priest—Father Guella—has played chess with Leo XIII. for thirty-two years. When Cardinal Fierri was raised to the papacy Father Guella got an invitation to take up his quarters in the Vatican. Guella is not temperate, but the pope takes his temper good naturedly, and is said to often improve the occasion by a homily on the virtues of resignation and meekness.

Tilo d'Agerty, a 15-year-old boy, has started a paper in New York, and intends to devote the net profits to the purchase of shoes for poor children. The paper is called The Shoe for the Poor, and it has attracted much attention. The little fellow has received a letter from Mrs. Harrison commending his enterprise.

The More Wants the Better.

The patriot to the treasury department: "With all thy faults I love thee still." —Barrett.

The Same Shape.

One day a half grown chicken got its foot caught in a trap, and made a dreadful fuss about it. Mamma was away, but Ava remembered to tell her the story when she came home.

"It hollered and hollered," she said "and pretty soon grandma pulled its foot out. It sounded just like Aunt Ella's cunnie, mamma."

"Oh no," laughed mamma, "I guess not!"

"Well, anyhow," protested Ava, "it made the same shape noise, only lots bigger, of course!" —Youth's companion.

A Crucial Test.

Postilligitation—There, sir, I have taken this out of your stomach!

Underfed Gentleman—Well, boss, since you was so clever as to take it out, try if you can't put the rabbit back again, stewed.—Life.

Where They Disregard Tramps.

The regular tramp of the north is hardly to be found in the Carolinas. Now and then a negro who has had to "skip" from some neighborhood goes wandering about, until run in by a constable, but the sight of a white tramp in the country is very rare. I came out looking over a plantation one day when one of the hands came up and reported a white man asleep on the roadside. A dozen of the laborers were summoned and we marched down to the spot. He was a sure enough white tramp, and he had stretched out for a snooze. Each negro cut a switch from a lot of swamp, and the wanderer was then arrested.

"Where are you from?" was asked.

"Ohio."

"What brought you here?"

"Traveling for my health."

"Is your health good?"

"Tolerably fair."

"And what's your game?"

"Three miles an hour on the average."

"Well, we'll give you a send off up the hill. Put on a tonic, boys."

They laid the switches on to him with heavy good will, following him for forty rods, and he never looked back as he rose the hill. The next day I saw him at a railroad station on an office car, and while the train was waiting a constable called him, he shot him down the track and started him off with a "biff" which bounced the rods of asphalt. Twenty rods away the man halted and began to cough.

"If that's any Yankee on that train, I want him to take a dose of low country corn. He's seeking investments in this country are made to feel to home and return to the bosom of the people!" —Detroit Free Press.

It Works Both Ways.

First Detective: I've got the two men who committed that murder. Their names are Chinks and Kinks.

Second Detective: You don't say so. How did you discover them?

"I ran across Chinks one day, and charged him with the crime."

"Yes. How did he take it?"

"He changed color—a sure sign that he's guilty."

"True—and the other?"

"I saw Kink's soon after, and boldly charged him with the crime."

"Good! How did he react?"

"He did not change color at all—a sure sign that he is a hardened criminal." —Luzon Tid-Bits.

Feminine Fancies.

A little girl hearing her mother read a number of experiences, as to how first-class passengers had cured him of insomnia, asked:

"Ma, what is insomnia?"

Her mother explained to her that it was when a person could not sleep sound.

During the day, having seen parents, she was approached by her little brother, who asked her for some. The face from which with him she still shows a generous disposition, she said:

"Brother, I am suffering awfully from insomnia, and very much afraid if you take any there will not be enough left to cure me!" —Detroit Free Press.

A Good Thing.

"What's this force up here for?" he asked of the ticket taker at one of the gates in the Third street depot.

"To prevent mistakes."

"How?"

"Why, to prevent a man from getting on the Lansing train when he has a ticket for Saginaw."

"But that's a good idea!" exclaimed the inquirer after a moment's thought. "I wonder if they couldn't fix something to prevent a man from buying a cow when he is after a horse?" —Detroit Free Press.

What She Found.

"I see," remarked Mr. Fangle, glancing at the morning paper, "that a Spanish geographer has proved the world to be flat."

"I suppose that means a change of geography in school," replied Mrs. Fangle, and just after I had bought Jimmy a new one, too." —Drake's Magazine.

A Little Boy's Idea.

"Mamma," said Freddy, when duty was to run a great many errands, "I wish I was only as big as a dollar."

"Why do you wish that, my son?"

"Because then I could put myself in my pocket and ride myself around." —Drake's Magazine.

Too Late for the Train.

Frison Missionary—What are you in for, friend?

Convict (bitterly)—Just for missing a train.

"Nonsense."

"No nonsense, sir. I missed a train for Montreal." —Texas Sifters.

No Objections to Children.

Philadelphia Lady obliged to make her home in New York—Do you admit children? Owner of Flat—Oh, yes; children pined up in flats never live long enough to do much damage. —Philadelphia Record.

After a Fashion.

The duke who is always looking for new styles goes along after a fashion.—New Orleans Picayune.

The More Wants the Better.

The patriot to the treasury department: "With all thy faults I love thee still." —Barrett.

The More Wants the Better.

The patriot to the treasury department: "With all thy faults I love thee still." —Barrett.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

MOST PERFECT MADE.

DR. PRICE'S DELICIOUS FLAVORING EXTRACTS

NATURAL FRUIT FLAVORS.

Used by the United States Government. Endorsed by the heads of the Great Universities and Public Health Analysts, at the Montreal, Jurist and most Healthful. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia, Alum, or any of the deleterious chemicals. Price Baking Powder Co., New York, Chicago, St. Louis.

LOOK HERE!

HOOD & SON

Have in their new ware room the largest display of

PLOWS, HARROWS, Cultivators, Etc.,

In this market, and their store room is overflowing with

Hardware, Glass, Paints, Varnishes, Mechanics' Tools, Brushes, Screen Doors and Windows.

Call and see them.

GROCERIES NEVER SO CHEAP!

It will be an interest to everyone that buys groceries to call at the PALACE!

And see the Low Prices goods can be purchased for. I have made a Cut Price on Goods that defy competition. I have a full line of Canned Goods and everything kept in a first class grocery. The following are a few quotations:

CANNED GOODS.		COFFEES.
1 lb. A. & C. California Peaches.....	20c	Good, per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Green Apples.....	20c	1 lb. B. & C. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. C. & D. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. D. & E. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. E. & F. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. F. & G. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. G. & H. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. H. & I. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. I. & J. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. J. & K. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. K. & L. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. L. & M. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. M. & N. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. N. & O. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. O. & P. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. P. & Q. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. Q. & R. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. R. & S. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. S. & T. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. T. & U. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. U. & V. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. V. & W. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. W. & X. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. X. & Y. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. Y. & Z. per package.....	25c
1 lb. A. & C. Apples.....	20c	1 lb. Z. & A. per package.....	25c

The Best Jackson, Massillon & Hocking LUMP AND NUT

Lehi, Scranton and Lackawana

Chestnut, Stove & Egg Coal

—AT—

PRANDERCASTS!

AT -- CHEAP -- AS -- THE -- CHEAPEST.

CITY TIME TABLE GET YOUR MEALS

Following is the time of arrival of and departure of trains at and from the several depots in this city, according to the latest schedule.

EAST.		WEST.
NO. 1	10:00 a.m.	NO. 2	10:00 a.m.
NO. 3	11:00 a.m.	NO. 4	11:00 a.m.
NO. 5	12:00 p.m.	NO. 6	12:00 p.m.
NO. 7	1:00 p.m.	NO. 8	1:00 p.m.
NO. 9	2:00 p.m.	NO. 10	2:00 p.m.
NO. 11	3:00 p.m.	NO. 12	3:00 p.m.
NO. 13	4:00 p.m.	NO. 14	4:00 p.m.
NO. 15	5:00 p.m.	NO. 16	5:00 p.m.
NO. 17	6:00 p.m.	NO. 18	6:00 p.m.
NO. 19	7:00 p.m.	NO. 20	7:00 p.m.
NO. 21	8:00 p.m.	NO. 22	8:00 p.m.
NO. 23	9:00 p.m.	NO. 24	9:00 p.m.
NO. 25	10:00 p.m.	NO. 26	10:00 p.m.
NO. 27	11:00 p.m.	NO. 28	11:00 p.m.
NO. 29	12:00 a.m.	NO. 30	12:00 a.m.
NO. 31	1:00 a.m.	NO. 32	1:00 a.m.
NO. 33	2:00 a.m.	NO. 34	2:00 a.m.
NO. 35	3:00 a.m.	NO. 36	3:00 a.m.
NO. 37	4:00 a.m.	NO. 38

LAMPS!

$1.00 Will buy an excellent lamp. We have much the largest assortment of lamps in Marion, and have just received some beauties that we are offering at $1.00, and many a time you have paid $1.50 and $2.00 for lamps that will not equal them.

HANGING LAMPS

From $2.00 to $20.00.

Queensware and Glassware at sacrifice prices, at

SANFORDS'.

YOU CAN BUY

WALL PAPER

7 TO 30 CENTS!
WANTS'S.

FOR RENT—Three rooms on the second floor of the McWilliams block, upposite Hotel Marion, new and fitted in excellent style. Inquire of D. McWilliams 10111.
FOR RENT—Choice office rooms in Masonic block, formerly Elk club rooms. Inquire of J. J. Hahn. 12111.
FOR RENT on SALE—Good house, barn and two acres of land, on north East street. See H. L. & S. O. 12111.
FOR RENT—Dwelling house on north West street. Inquire of J. D. Gregory.
WANTED—A good girl to do general housework. Inquire of Mrs. J. J. Hahn, on east Center street. 12111.
WANTED—To buy an atlas of Marion county. H. T. VASILEK.

STAR OFFICE TELEPHONE NUMBER 31.

—Buy your bread at Rupp's.
—J. W. Hinds & Co. for wall paper.
—Mr. Charles Baker is back to Marion for a short stay.
—C. F. Garberson was at Longville Monday on business.
—G. T. Emerson was at Richwood looking over the city today.
—You can get maple syrup that is made syrup at Hahn's grocery. 12111.
—Chris Stigdal, of Mt. Pleasant, was in the city today on business.
—Dr. Maxwell, of Galesburg, was in town a short time this morning.
—W. L. Clement and family are now residing at No. 19 Mt. Vernon avenue.
—Judge Mathews paid his many friends at Green Camp a flying visit today.
—E. C. Gahler, of the O. W. U., at Delta ware, is the guest of L. Rupp in this city.
—Mrs. Minnie Conway was at Kenton attending the funeral of her uncle at that place.
—D. S. Jones is in Baltimore establishing a general agency for the Huber company in that section.
—Henry Wagner and wife, of Portland, Ind., are visiting Lewis Gunn and family on north Main street.
—W. B. Shields, of Columbus, has accepted a position on the C. and A. force of clerks at the Junction.
—Sheriff Kelly and Auditor Clark were shaking hands and circulating among the friends at La Rue today.
—Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen were out Monday evening enjoying the pleasure of horseback riding.
—James Morris, of Columbus, has purchased the Ellis property on Gospel Hill and will make this city his future home.
—Sheriff Kelly is now selling out the jewelry store of Merrill Lusk at private sale. He did a rushing business yesterday.
—The Huber company is making an exhibit of their spring machinery at the Union N. Y. spring fair, this week. E. D. Bulow has gone to take charge of the locomotive.
—The Marion Manufacturing Co. filed an application for a $50,000 increase of capital stock today. This will make the total capital stock $100,000, and will put the company in excellent financial condition.
—The members of the Ladies' Relief Corps held an enthusiastic meeting at the home of Mrs. James Culbertson Monday evening, after which choice refreshments were served and all took part in the general good time.

CHASE & HUNTER

TO TRADE OR SELL—$16,000.—We might entertain a proposition to trade the G. H. Wright brick mansion and 8 acres on the property lately owned by J. C. Johnston, Esq., on east Center St. Come at us once.

FOR SALE—A nice lot on west Center street, near School building; price, $1600.

FOR SALE, or will trade for farm—House and lot on Garden street; price, $3500.

CARPETS.

Extra Supers

And There's

Hartford & Lowell.

The Largest Assortment in Marion, The Finest Artistic Patterns, The Choicest Colorings, The Lowest Prices.

CARPETS MADE & LAID!

Curtains, Rugs and Art Squares, in endless varieties.

D. YAKE.

IN NEW QUARTERS

J. W. Hinds & Co., Inc. in Their New Rooms—Wall Paper and Framing Departments Added.

One of the most stores in Marion today is that of J. W. Hinds & Co., in their new room in the Belmont block, opposite the court house. The room, with its new front and its first-class paper is decidedly the most complete and up-to-date place in the city for the sale of wall paper, carpets, rugs and art squares.

The new room is occupied by the drug stock proper, largely new and fresh, the back part of which is devoted to the prescription department. The room back of this is devoted exclusively to wall paper, a neat light room containing over 25,000 rolls of the choicest wall paper stock ever brought to Marion. This department is a new feature with Messrs. Hinds & Co., proposing making it a leading one of good stock and attractive prices will do it.

The floor above the wall paper room is devoted exclusively to the framing department, and is being stocked with an extra fine line of moldings for all kinds of frames.

The store has the advantage of a fine store room back of the wall paper department, and still back of that a splendid cellar for their wines and liquors. These are advantages they did not have in their former location on the corner, and they feel much better able to serve their customers in their new quarters. All old patrons and new ones are invited to call.

MARRIED

McCLELLAND—NORTH P.—On the 11th inst., by Rev. A. D. Matthews, at his residence, Mr. Jacob C. McClelland, of Washington county, and Miss Doris Northup, of Marion county.

WELER—KIMMEL—On the 18th ult., by Rev. A. D. Matthews, at his residence, Mr. John W. Weler and Miss Emma Kimmel, both of this county.

Court Cases Decided.—At the session of court last Saturday, Judge Norris rendered the following decisions.

In the case of Priscilla Rayl vs. A. H. King, assignee, the court held the claim of $579.75 of plaintiff to be a valid one, but not a perfect claim. The plaintiff gave notice of appeal.

The motion for a new trial in the case of W. H. Rugg et al. vs. C. E. Kelly et al. was overruled, and defendants' attorneys excepted.

In the case of Marion County bank vs. James King, Jr., the sale of real estate was continued upon agreement of plaintiff to release judgment on other premises.

A Room for the Leader.—The Marion Mount is turning to a sold out of the Leader. Separately to the Brampton Machine Co., of Brampton, Ontario, Monday, and also sold the right to manufacture the same in the C. and A. in dominion to that company. The representatives of the Brampton Co. were here a couple of days, and visited many of the shops in this county, and chose the Leader as their main line. The house is quite a valued item in the list of the Leader and its manufacturers.

For Sale.—Twenty one lots on Greenwood street, also 20 acres suitable for city lots within out suburbs of New Union Shops. See L. B. Duffell.

Office with Second & Second. 12012

For Rent.—The James King, Jr. farm, adjoining town, 115 acres, for rent. Apply to B. O'Leary, Marion, O. 121511

For Sale.—Five lots within four blocks of Court House. L. B. Duffell.

Office with Second & Second. 12012

The agent of the N. Y. P. and O. at Springfield received a message from Marion last night stating that a safe of jewelry belonging to a jewelry salesman had been stolen from the depot at that place, and to keep a look out for the thieves who had started this way. It is thought they were seen at the Junction last night, but no arrests were made.

The remains of Jacob Shrock were brought here and the funeral services held at 10:30 o'clock this morning, at a funeral home. His age was 71 years and 5 months. The remains were placed in the Marion cemetery vault.

A. D. Matthews & Son have sold their grocery store to M. Nelson & Son, of Ada, Ohio, who will shortly take possession of the stock. The new firm are experienced grocers and stand high in the community from which they hail.

Rev. Miner and family returned from Mount Pleasant Monday morning, where Mr. Miner is holding a protracted meeting. He reports the meeting progressing finely, there now being fourteen accessions to the church.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair weather, followed by light rain, slightly warmer, stationary temperature, variable winds, becoming easterly.

RUGS

ART SQUARES!

AN ENTIRE NEW LINE!
Smyrna Rugs, all sizes,
Elegant Wilton Rugs,
Genuine Ponjaubs.

CURTAINS

Endless Variety.

WARNER & EDWARDS.

BOWERS' BOOT & SHOE HOUSE,

Cor. Main and Center Streets.

IN NEW QUARTERS!

J. W. HINDS & CO.

Are now located in the newly and handsomely refitted Behner room, on Center street, opposite Court House. In addition to their immense stock of DRUGS!

They are making a specialty of

Wall Paper!

—AND—

Picture Frames

At inviting prices. Call at the new location.

RESULT OF A DRUNKEN ROW.

A Brakeman Shot and Killed by a Farmer's Son.

EVANS, Mich., April 9.—Frank Doty, a brakeman on the Flint and Pere Marquette railroad, was shot and instantly killed here at 10 o'clock Saturday night by Seymour Ruby, a son of a farmer living in Hyman township. A party of country boys were in town Saturday afternoon drinking freely, and it appears that Doty and two or three hundred of the village were determined to give them a whipping and followed them for that purpose.

Upon leaving the street the boys gave several drunken yells which attracted the attention of the gang who followed them. All but Seymour and George Bailey ran away; they were too drunk to do so. Doty then looked and knifed down Seymour and Bailey, when the latter pulled a revolver and fired two shots. Doty fell dead in his tracks. The Bailey boys were arrested. Seymour acknowledged the shooting, but said it was in self-defense.

WOMAN'S WEAR

Black toilets are more than ever in favor with the Parisians.

In spring millinery the toques and the round hat divide honors about evenly.

White and black bonnets are much in vogue with gold ribbon and gold embroidery.

Woolen dresses, a silk season and a hat of light color for the summer of 1893.

Many gowns and skirts are cut in points at the feet, bound with galloon and worn over a perfectly plain foundation skirt.

A knot of red flowers, matching the bride's bouquet and tied up with a bit of silver cord, is the present London substitute for the old time wedding favor.

Bonnet strings of ribbon or velvet will give place to wide thin ones of lace or net to be tied in a big bow under the chin or else to form a long loop and hanging end at one side.

A new fancy in tea gowns is to have a big upstanding bow of a contrasting color at the back of the neck, instead of a collar. Some times the bows are lined with stuff of the gown.

In fans those with flowers wired all over with invisible net divide honors with the empire of carved and painted ivory, decorated with a loose lace bow in the center that shows whether the fan is closed or open.

An English milliner deserves immortality at the hands of the theatre going public for her invention of the "collapsible" bonnet.

The wars in it run from a common center, it folds down and can be pocketed or set upon at pleasure without the least damage.

The flower pockets now so much the fashion for bridesmaids are cut out of cardboard, covered with the gown stuff, and then have the chosen blossoms sewed thick all over them and are hung from the waist by ribbons matching or contrasting well with the costume.

Round hats have low crowns and a dead of bun in front with next to none at back. Bespoke styles have the brim straight out and are trimmed with many plumes. Empire ones are in pole shape and amply ovariun with flowers. Rosas are always and every where first favorites.

Cotton stuffs for summer come in all shades of red, in a dozen tones of blue, in pink gray and in lavender. Black and white are combined with them in nearly all the big broken plaids, that are immensely popular. If well worn but unfashionable were confounded in the hands of an unskilled dressmaker.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Superintendent Gideon, of the Minnesota experimental fruit farm, is accused of having sold $20,000 or $30,000 worth of trees, without accounting for them. Mr. Gideon denies the charges.

Have You Seen

THE LADIES' FINE IMPORTED SHOES!

AT TRISTRAM & YOUNG'S. "THE VERY LATEST."

CALL FOR THE GENET PARIS, OR THE Wright & Peters GRECIAN

NEW YORK LAST,

Tristram & Young's

MERCHANT TAILORING.

Williams & Leffler,

MERCHANT TAILORS,

Spring & Summer Goods.

A PERFECT FIT AND SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

PRICES REASONABLE!

HYGIENIC! POULTRY FOOD

Williams & Gurley's Flour and Feed Store, 3 Doors North Jail.

In Our Last Consignment

—OF—

Spring Dress Goods

Was a Line of

French and Zephyr Gingham!

In plains, stripes, checks, plaids and beautiful combinations.

A new line of Armure Silks in the popular shades of Old Rose, Gobelin Blue and the new shades in Green.

Also a few more pieces of French Sateens in dress pattern lengths, only one pattern to the piece.

India Silks!

India Silks!

JOHN FRASH.

PURE LAKE ICE!

EBERHARDT & STARK Are prepared to furnish the Marion public with genuine Lake Ice, to private families and business houses, either by the season or by the cwt.

Prompt Daily Deliveries

Leave orders by mail or call at office at Sam Kramer's Bakery.

THE VERY BEST OF THE SEASON

A HOST OF LOVELY WOMEN!

Music - Hall.

(One Night Only.)

Tuesday Evening, April 9th, ROOM HILL'S

ENGLISH FOLLY COMPANY,

A Show Absolutely Without a Parallel, presenting the Comical Musical, Spectacular Burlesque, in two acts.

Parisian Revels,

—OR—

Cupid's Capers!

Assisted by the Favorite Comedians.

RICE AND BARTON!

And a Select Number of First-Class Specialty Stars.

ADMISSION: 50c and 75c. 25c Reserved Seats now on sale at Tristram & Young's.

NEW - SHOE - STORE!

Berndt & Bender

Have opened out a new stock of

BOOTS and SHOES

in the True Building, East Center street, and solicit a share of your patronage. All New Goods and Prices Low.

CUSTOM MADE WORK

A specialty, and repairing of all kinds on short notice.